

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY POLICY

Under the Equality Act (2010) all schools are responsible for eliminating any form of discrimination, for promoting good relations between children, staff and parents and for ensuring that all pupils, regardless of sex, race, disability, religion or belief or sexual orientation, gender reassignment, pregnancy or maternity should have equal access to all aspects of school life, reflected in the school environments and its curriculum.

All staff appointments are to be based on strict professional criteria.

All staff should be seen to model appropriate behaviour and should take every opportunity to encourage pupils to behave appropriately and to deal with incidents positively.

All forms of discrimination, including bullying and harassment, by any person will be treated seriously and breaking the conditions of the equal opportunities policy will be deemed as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary action.

The policy will be monitored and reviewed each year.
